abus, April 20.—For the third time the present session began, legislature paused in its work, paying tribute to the memory of the late Senator Hanna. The principal address was delivered by Charles Dick, who is Senator's successor. Dick said: "Only office Mr. Hanna ever accepted a seat in the board of on in his adopted city was a at the United States senate. at McKinley had offered him a his cabinet, but that he de. that Senator Hanna believed in the future greatness of his country, and the doctrine of America for Americans and that Senator Hanna's life and work would be an inspiration to young men for many years to come. Lieut. Gov Harding said: "There is near association of the name of the late Senator Hanna with the 76th. general assembly, now assembled to honor his memory. The overwhelming party victory at the polls, resulting in the excessive majority of those of the senator's political faith, was itself a tribute to Senator Hanna. Many members of this body without disparagement of them owe their official position to the fact that they represented that great and trusted leader in the contest at the polls. The legislative campaign was peculiarly personal to Mr. Hanna, and its result was a vindication and triumph of his political and personal career."

Governor Herrick said in part: Although only a few weeks have passed since the death of Senator Hanna, all the people of the nation finally know the true glory of his noble and self-sacrificing life, a life shortened because of his devotion to public duty. One by one his bitterest enemies have passed sadly by and dropped a flower on his grave, acknowledging his greatness and his value to his countrymen. His name now is written high in the temple of fame. Hereafter he is to be known, not by party or class, but as a great Ohioan, a great American."

"Senator Hanna in speaking of the possibilities of the presidency, said: 'My ambition now is to serve out my term of office in a manner which shall be acceptable to the people. I have no higher ambition than to do this and devote the balance of my life to the cultivation of capital and labor. If I can even partially accomplish this, I will have achieved my highest ambition.'"

Senator Smallenberger of Cuyahoga county, said in part: "Rarely has the loss of a great man caused such profound sorrow, or the memory of one inspired such loving remembrance. The nobility of his character was established by the severest of tests. His ability was proven by the grandest results. He died in the zenith of his power."

His energy kept pace with the difficulties he encountered. He despised deceit and admitted frankness. In the storm centers of public life he was courageous as a lion. In retreat of private life he was lovable as a child."

Street traffic was considerably impeded and trains were late in arriving. At noon when the snow had ceased falling there had been a total fall of six inches. RAILWAYS

Owned by Hungary Are Tied Up.

Striking Employees Strike a Train, and Cut Wires.

Several Hundred Arrested—Government Refuses to Treat With Them and Has Instituted Criminal Proceedings.

Budapest, April 20.—The strike of railway men which began yesterday on the Hungarian Western railway, has become general and on all the Hungarian state railways today traffic is at a standstill. The Southern railway, which is not owned by the government alone managed to start trains out of Budapest today. Six trains due last night have not yet arrived.

The railroad stations are guarded by troops. A number of strikers arriving here to attend the meeting have been arrested. The prices of provisions already have risen. Up to the present time, 450 railroad employees have been arrested. The situation was discussed by the members and deputies prior to the sitting of the diet. Premier Tisza declared the government could not negotiate with the strikers, and that he had ordered troops to be summoned to assist in the re-establishment of order and had instructed the railroad and telegraph regiment to operate the railroads. An example, he added, must be made of the ring leaders of the strike.

Another batch of 500 railroad men from Flume, have been arrested. The men in the workshops of the Western railroad have joined the strikers. The latter have disconnected the telegraph instruments at various points severing communication. A band of 750 men seized a train at Bia-Torbagy, brought it to Budapest and reported themselves to the police, who have instituted criminal proceedings against them.

He Declares Boldly That Nothing But Death Can Prevent Nomination of Theodore Roosevelt for President.

Burlington, Vt., April 20.—The republican state convention to choose delegates at large to the national convention met here today. Before the business of the convention was begun, Senator J. B. Foraker, of Ohio, addressed the assemblage.

The senator reviewed at length the republican party's policy regarding the Philippines, Cuba, Porto Rico and the Isthmian canal and his declaration, "We are standing pat on all the great fundamental republican policies," evoked great applause.

He contrasted the failure of the democratic party to agree on a presidential candidate with the absence of controversy among republicans and said:

"Our daily record constitutes our platform and every man knows that nothing but death can prevent the nomination of Theo. Roosevelt."

"Whatever way we look," said the speaker in conclusion, we see only peace, happiness, esteem and honor, both home and abroad."

Russia Thankful for Sympathy.

St. Petersburg, April 20.—5:25 p. m.—While accepting gratefully the world wide expressions of sympathy which Russia has received as a result of the death of Vice Admiral Makaroff and the Petropavlovsk disaster the papers seem especially impressed with the sympathy shown by the British press, several using the text to argue on the opportuneness of the discussion in favor of a Russian-British understanding. Such a rapprochement, the Novosti believes, could now be found, not only upon interest but on popular sympathy. Another such moment, the paper adds, may not soon come again and should be taken advantage of.

Continuing, the Novosti says: "A sincere rapprochement with Great Britain would guarantee our future development."

SANITARY ADVANTAGES OF PASTEURIZED MILK.

Not only does pasteurized milk keep longer and is also free from specific disease bacteria, but its use has been of utmost importance in checking infant mortality from diarrhoea disturbance. This is shown in the diminished death rate in children's hospitals, and is again exemplified on a large scale in the results that have been obtained in New York city through the liberality of Nathan Strauss, who, for several years, has furnished the poor children of that city with pasteurized milk. Since the introduction of this milk the death rate of those under 5 years of age has dropped over ten per thousand living persons, a condition which is explainable in large measure to the use of a relatively germ-free milk. If this is true of children, is it not relatively true of adults?

CARTER & CARROLL.

AY HONOR TO HANNA.

Second Time This Session, the State Legislature Ceases Work

Memory of Late Senator.

Senator Dick Says His Predecessor Was a Soldier, and That He Accomplished a Great Legislative Achievement in Reconciling Isthmian Canal Diverse Interests.

bus, April 20.—For the third time the present session began, the legislature paused in its work today to pay honor to Marcus A. Hanna, a late senator from Ohio, who died in January elected and term in the senate. After it adjourned out of recess today and to attend his funeral and the two branches of the legislature met for formal exercises and to pay honor to the late senator.

At the session held in the house, Lieut. Gov. Warren presiding. After prayer by S. S. Palmer, Gov. Herrick delivered the address. The principal address was delivered by Charles Dick, who is Senator successor. Dick said: "The office Mr. Hanna ever occupied a seat in the board of the United States senate."

McKinley had offered him a seat in the cabinet, but that he declined. At his first election the majority success was narrow. It was an uprising of the people in Ohio to register the verdict of the people. He was elected by a landslide. He was a candidate for the presidency. He was a candidate for the presidency. He was a candidate for the presidency.

He was a candidate for the presidency. He was a candidate for the presidency. He was a candidate for the presidency. He was a candidate for the presidency. He was a candidate for the presidency.

He was a candidate for the presidency. He was a candidate for the presidency. He was a candidate for the presidency. He was a candidate for the presidency. He was a candidate for the presidency.

He was a candidate for the presidency. He was a candidate for the presidency. He was a candidate for the presidency. He was a candidate for the presidency. He was a candidate for the presidency.

that Senator Hanna believed in the future greatness of his country, and the doctrine of America for Americans and that Senator Hanna's life and work would be an inspiration to young men for many years to come. Lieut. Gov. Harding said: "There is near association of the name of the late Senator Hanna with the 76th general assembly, now assembled to honor his memory. The overwhelming party victory at the polls, resulting in the excessive majority of those of the senator's political faith, was itself a tribute to Senator Hanna. Many members of this body would not disavow the fact that they represented that great and trusted leader in the contest at the polls. The legislative campaign was peculiarly personal to Mr. Hanna, and its result was a vindication and triumph of his political and personal career."

Governor Herrick said in part: "Although only a few weeks have passed since the death of Senator Hanna, all the people of the nation finally know the true glory of his noble and self-sacrificing life, a life shortened because of his devotion to public duty. One by one his bitterest enemies have passed sadly by and dropped a flower on his grave, acknowledging his greatness and his value to his countrymen. His name now is written high in the temple of fame. Hereafter he is to be known, not by party or class, but as a great Ohioan, a great American."

"Senator Hanna, in speaking of the possibilities of the presidency said: 'My ambition now is to serve our my team of office in a manner which shall be acceptable to the people. I have no higher ambition than to do this and devote the balance of my life to the conciliation of capital and labor. If I can even partially accomplish this, I will have achieved my highest ambition.'"

Senator Shallenberger, of Cuyahoga county, said in part: "Rarely has the loss of a great man caused such profound sorrow, or the memory of one inspired such loving remembrance. The nobility of his character was established by the severity of tests. His ability was proven by the grandest results. He died in the zenith of his power."

His energy kept pace with the difficulties he encountered. He despised deceit and admitted frankness. In the storm centers of public life he was conspicuous as a lion. In retreat of private life he was lovable as a child."

ST. LOUIS IS SNOWBOUND.

During Forenoon Six Inches of Beautiful Snow Fell on the World's Fair.

St. Louis, April 20.—A severe snow storm raged here today, which, being driven by a high wind at times assumed the proportions of a blizzard. Street traffic was considerably impeded and trains were late in arriving. At noon when the snow had ceased falling there had been a total fall of six inches. Because of the snow the ball game between the St. Louis and Chicago National league teams and the St. Louis and Cleveland American league teams, scheduled for today, were postponed. At the fair grounds track racing will continue today as usual. Reports received here indicate that from 5 to 7 inches of snow fell within a radius of 150 miles of St. Louis. The storm is moving to the north and east.

NOT CREDITABLE TO RUSSIAN WAR MINISTER.

London, April 20.—The Japanese legation here is greatly interested in the announcement of Viceroy Alexieff's resignation. The opinion is expressed that if he had resigned six months ago, there would have been no war, but now that hostilities are in progress, the Japanese would have preferred to see Alexieff retain control.

RAILWAYS Owned by Hungary Are Tied Up.

Striking Employees Seize a Train, and Cut Wires.

Several Hundred Arrested—Government Refuses to Treat With Them and Has Instituted Criminal Proceedings.

Budapest, April 20.—The strike of railway men which began yesterday on the Hungarian Western railway has become general and on all the Hungarian state railways today traffic is at a standstill. The Southern railway, which is not owned by the government alone managed to start trains out of Budapest today. Six trains due last night have not yet arrived. The railroad stations are guarded by troops. A number of strikers arriving here to attend the meeting have been arrested. The prices of provisions already have risen. Up to the present time, 450 railroad employees have been arrested.

The situation was discussed by the ministers and deputies prior to the sitting of the diet. Premier Tisza declared the government could not negotiate with the strikers, and that he had ordered troops to be summoned to assist in the re-establishment of order and had instructed the railroad and telegraph regiment to operate the railroads. An example, he added, must be made of the ring leaders of the strike.

Another batch of 500 railroad men from Fiume, have been arrested. The men in the workshops of the Western railroad have joined the strikers. The latter have disconnected the telegraph instruments at various points severing communication. A band of 750 men seized a train at Bia-Torhagy, brought it to Budapest and reported themselves to the police, who have instituted criminal proceedings against them.

WILLIAMS CHARGES ATTORNEY GENERAL

Has Failed in His Duty by Not Instituting Criminal Proceedings, Although Possessed of Favorable Opinion From Court.

Washington, April 20.—At a meeting today of the judiciary committee, Representative John Sharp Williams, of Mississippi, the minority leader, charged that the attorney general had failed in his duty to conduct criminal prosecutions against those declared by the supreme court in the merger case to have violated the anti-trust law and also had failed to institute legal proceedings against the anthracite coal carrying roads, although the attorney general had in his possession a report favorable to prosecutions. In a letter to the chairman of the committee from which Mr. Williams read, the attorney general declared it would be incompatible with the public interest to give the information to congress but Mr. Williams declared that it was the duty of congress to impeach an officer of the government chronically failing to observe his oath in the execution of the law.

MUCH Wheat to Be Plowed Under.

Conditions In Ohio and Other Central States.

Weather Has Been Unseasonably Cold and Unfavorable for Its Growth.

States of Upper Lake Region Were Covered With Deep Snow Last Week, and Many Injurious Frosts Occurred.

Washington, April 20.—The weather bureau's weekly summary crop conditions is as follows: In nearly all districts east of the Rocky mountains the week ending April 18 was unseasonably cold and very unfavorable for growth. Farm work however in the Missouri valley and Southern Middle Atlantic states made very favorable progress but in the northern districts nothing has been done. The states of the upper lake region were covered with snow to a considerable depth during the latter part of the week and frosts more or less injurious occurred as far south as the northern portion of the gulf states. The Pacific coast states and Rocky mountain districts experienced a week of highly favorable temperature conditions.

Preparations for planting corn have been active under favorable conditions in the Missouri valley and middle Atlantic states but this work has made slow progress in the Ohio valley. Very little planting was done where planting had not begun at the close of the previous week. In the southern states low temperature has proved unfavorable by checking growth and germination.

In Missouri and over the greater portion of Kansas and Nebraska, winter wheat has made good growth but needs warmer weather. In Illinois, wheat has made little growth and its condition is less promising than ten days ago. In Ohio and in central and northern Indiana, a large acreage will be plowed up for other crops. Winter wheat has made splendid growth on the Pacific coast especially in Washington and Oregon. Over the southern portion of the spring wheat region the seeding of spring wheat has been actively carried on and is nearly finished in Iowa, Nebraska and southeastern South Dakota, southern North Dakota and Minnesota. Very little seeding has been done.

Tuttle, of the juvenile court of Cook county, Illinois, and was on "The Attitude of the State Toward Delinquent Boys and Girls." W. H. Singleton of Washington D. FORAKER

Makes Use of a Hanna Aphorism,

And With It Draws Great Applause for Himself.

He Declares Boldly That Nothing But Death Can Prevent Nomination of Theodore Roosevelt for President.

Burlington, Vt., April 20.—The republican state convention to choose delegates at large to the national convention met here today. Before the business of the convention was begun, Senator J. B. Foraker, of Ohio, addressed the assemblage.

The senator reviewed at length the republican party's policy regarding the Philippines, Cuba, Porto Rico and the Isthmian canal and his declaration. "We are" standing pat on all the great fundamental republican policies," evoked great applause.

He contrasted the failure of the democratic party to agree on a presidential candidate with the absence of controversy among republicans and said:

"Our daily record constitutes our platform and every man knows that nothing but death can prevent the nomination of Theo. Roosevelt."

BATTLE IS IMMINENT

Between the Two Opposing Armies Now at the Yalu River.

Several Skirmishes Reported

And the Japanese Authorities at the Korean Capital Admit That a General Engagement Is Momentarily Expected—A Loss to the Japs' Navy Is Reported.

Seoul, April 20.—11:45 a. m.—The Japanese authorities here admit that constant skirmishing is occurring between the opposing armies on the Yalu river, but they claim that no decisive action has taken place up-to-date though news of such an engagement is expected at any moment. It is estimated that the Russians now have fifty thousand men on the Yalu river.

Russia Thankful for Sympathy.

St. Petersburg, April 20.—5:25 p. m.—While accepting gratefully the world wide expressions of sympathy which Russia has received as a result of the death of Vice Admiral Makarov and the Petropavlovsk disaster, the papers here especially impressed with the sympathy shown by the British press, several using the text to argue on the opportuneness of the discussion in favor of a Russian-British understanding. Such a rapprochement, the Novosti believes, could now be found, not only upon interest but on popular sympathy. Another such moment, the paper adds, may not soon come again and should be taken advantage of.

Continuing, the Novosti says: "A sincere rapprochement with Great Britain would guarantee our future development."

SOME SWELL FRILLS FOR FEMININE WEAR.

Colored handkerchiefs and white ones with colored borders are the only correct thing for use with the shirt-waist suit this spring and summer. These come in softest tints and linens, in pale lavenders, blues, pinks, yellows and even in reds. They are scented, hemstitched and lace-edged in fast colors.

All sorts of floral fancies are carried out in these mouchoirs, but the preference is for small flowers like forget-me-nots, daisies and wild roses. These are embroidered in mercerized floss, which looks like silk in the natural colors.

A parasol fad is the use of jet stud handles. Many of the exclusive sunshades and carriage parasols in all the blue, gray, pink and lavender shades, as well as the red, green and black ones, show these handles. Some are curved in crooked effect, others straight, but they are a solid mass of jet the size of seed pearls.

The bracelet is becoming more popular and it is predicted that two instead of one will be worn before the summer wanes. At present the bracelet is worn on the left arm.

Gold bracelets, which are merely exaggerated rings, are to be seen. Others are set with the favorite jewels or birthday stones of the wearer. The bangle bracelet is also to be seen with chains of tiny gold beads dangling from it. The favorite armlet is a delicate silver filigreed affair, which is made by the Indians. It is sometimes set with a large turquoise. A ring of the same material is worn with this bracelet.

Necklaces of slender silver or gold chain have a heart or Swastika cross dangling from the end. The cross is more popular than the heart, as it is supposed to be a symbol of good luck. A large turquoise is usually set in the center of the heart of cross.

The peacock superstition is evidently a thing of the past, for not only girdles are to be seen made of sections of the leathers set in gold frames, but pins of peacock feathers also are worn. One seen recently was the tip of a real feather set like those in the belt in a medallion with glass over it, and worn for a brooch. Another peacock pin, which is worn to fasten the collar, or in a pair to clasp the turnover cuffs, is less than an inch long and an exact imitation of a feather in gold and filigree.

Gold or silver cloth slippers for evening wear, with flowers to match, are considered exclusive. A pair of silver cloth ones had silver orchids for ornaments. These slippers have a double advantage, as they do not need to match a gown and can be worn so as to give the crush effect.

The new automobile veils are more ornate than ever. An exclusive model is of lavender chiffon, with an accordion pleated ruffle all about the edge so that it falls from the hat about the neck. It is kept in position about the neck by a silk elastic cord, which hooks in the back. The trim looks much like an Elizabethan ruff. A lavender bow where the veil is attached to the hat finishes it.

Another automobile veil is a combination of eggshell blue chiffon and black lace zigzag insertion. The latter is set in across that portion of the veil which covers the eyes, and as the lace is an openwork mesh, it enables the wearer to see through it better than through the chiffon. It also fastens at the neck with a rubber band which hooks at the back, but instead of a frill, there are long bow knot ends of the chiffon which fall nearly to the waist line. The veil is fastened on the hat in a wire hoop.

Corset Decorations. The new corset decorations are as much a necessity as an adornment to corsets. The full bodice fronts and yoke effects make it imperative that there be an even, full line across the front of the bodice from shoulder to shoulder.

One of the confections made to achieve this result is a band of lace, run through the top with ribbon fastened inside the shoulder with ribbon bows, to which are gathered two or three ruffles of lace of graduated widths, one falling over the other. Another band effect is covered with a deep, quilted ruffling of bobbinet. Still another has a full quilting of pinked taffeta, and a similar one is made of ruffles of ribbon with or without a big bow in the middle.

More popular than these are the padded bows. A strip of figured, dotted or plain satin or silk is cut to reach from shoulder to shoulder. This is lined with cotton wadding, folded over and sewed together on the edges. It is then tied tightly across the middle with a large ribbon bow of the same color. Where the material is plain, it is decorated with hand-painting or hand-embroidery on each end of the pad, and often upon the ribbon ends and loops.

White, pale blue and pink are favorite colors for pads, while forget-me-nots, violets and little pink roses are employed principally in the decorations.

Plump women prefer a decoration immediately in the front of the corset. The general style is a flat, wadded heart larger than a large hand, and trimmed around the edge with fine, narrow lace. The heart is covered with fine embroidered mull, or some other sheer material, over colored silk or satin.

Little lace-bordered and embroidered handkerchiefs, with a heading in the upper portion or across the middle, are popular to wear in front of corsets. Narrow ribbon, run through the heading, is drawn to make full gathers in the handkerchiefs.

CHICAGO IS FILLED WITH

Men Who Are Competent to Fill Offices Said Judge Haney Today.

Chicago, April 20.—In a sweeping opinion as to the eligibility of non-residents to become public officials in this city, Judge Elbridge Haney, in the superior court today, decided against the certification of Charles B. Ballot, of New York, who was appointed chief sentry inspector of this city by the Chicago civil service commission. Instead Perry L. Hedrick, of Chicago, is ordered to be certified to the office. In the opinion Judge Haney declared it to be "against the fundamental laws and the common sense and common policy of the people of Chicago with its population of over 2,000,000 abundantly able to supply competent help for any office to say that some department or any department should be permitted to go to New York or any other place to get employees to perform services to be paid for by the taxpayers of Chicago."

HEALTH

Of Those Engaged Along Isthmian Canal

Can Be Preserved by Introduction of Sewerage.

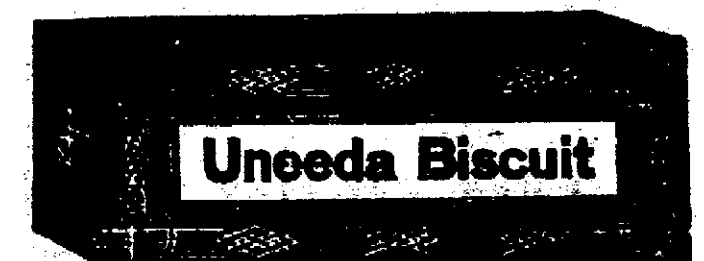

Member of Canal Commission Who Has Just Returned From Inspection Tour Talks of Project Being Undertaken.

New York, April 20.—William Barclay Parsons, member of the Isthmian canal commission returned from Panama today. Speaking of the inspection of canal route by the commission, Mr. Parsons said they passed in boats through such portions of the canal as have been sufficiently finished to be navigable, examined at great length the Emperor and Culebra cuts, which form the most serious obstacle to construction and traversed the Chagres river for some miles above the canal so as to study details of construction necessary to control this stream which at time of flood carries an enormous amount of water. The commission also examined the various sites selected for locks, the site of Adam which has been proposed to be constructed at a place called Bohio, which would convert the central portion of the canal route into a large artificial lake, and also examined sites for other dams as alternate schemes to the Bohio dam. In all these examinations, he said the engineers of the company rendered valuable assistance. Concerning health conditions the commissioner was confident that with a supply of good water furnished both to Colon and Panama and with a complete system of sewerage, supported by proper sanitary regulations, vigorously enforced, both of these cities could be made healthful places of residences. Steps were taken before he left Panama to begin investigation for the selection of a proper supply of water for both Colon and Panama. Mr. Parsons thought that the rest of the commission having completed the investigation of the leading feature of the canal problem, would settle the minor questions within a few weeks and would then return to Washington and organize the necessary engineering corps.

The Best of All

Good things are good so far as they do good. This axiom applies with force to the plain goodness of Uneeda Biscuit. They're good because they taste good and do good.

are good for the grown man as well as the boy—as good for the baby as the mother. Are not only good, but keep good. You can always depend on them. That's against your biscuit experience—and you can't understand it until you examine the air-tight, moisture-proof package in which they are sold. Never sold in bulk.

AFTER

A Cessation of Two Weeks

Cupid Again

Attacks South Lima and as a Result

There Were Two Weddings Solemnized Last Night.

John Stiller Figures in a Railroad Accident—Funeral Notices—Personal and Local Items

Don Cupid has evidently recovered from an attack of spring fever, occasioned by a warm day two weeks ago. At least he has aroused himself to a stage of activity, and succeeded in driving his little dart into four tender hearts, the result of which was two weddings last evening.

The first couple to seek the blessings of a minister in tying a nuptial knot were David L. Crider, a painter at the L. E. & W. shops, and Miss Dora Carpenter, of south Elizabeth street. This couple were married at the Grace M. E. parsonage by the Rev. Hagerman at 7:30, last evening. The Criders will make their home at 939 south Elizabeth street. "Shorty" and his bride are both well known, and many congratulations are being received.

Last evening, just as the Rev. Crist was going to dismiss services at the Second street M. E. church, where a revival is in progress, in walked a man leading a blushing but happy-looking damsel, stating he would like the preacher to pronounce them man and wife. After the audience had become seated, the reverend spoke his little piece. The couple were David A. Pugh and Rosetta Eaton, both strangers, but they gave it out that they were going to live in south Lima. Received a Call.

Rev. G. W. Schmitz, former pastor of the south Lima Baptist church, who lives on east Kibby street, has accepted a call to the Terrace Park Baptist church in Cincinnati, and will move his family to that city in a few days.

Notice Important. A paper is being circulated within the last few days among south side residents who gave their notes some years ago to aid the DeCurtain Bros. financial standing, asking for a distribution of surplus funds alleged to be in the hands of trustees. The petition is at Cramer's drug store and all those interested are requested to sign it.

Caught Beneath a Car. This morning, about 1:15, John B. Stiner, a Chicago & Erie switchman, had a very narrow escape from death, and only his presence of mind saved him. He had stepped in front of a cut of cars just west of the depot, and his right foot got caught between a main rail and a guard rail. Mr. Stiner realized his position, and after hard pulling succeeded in freeing his foot from the shoe, but not in time to escape uninjured. A flange cut off the fourth toe and severely smashed the foot. Dr. Terwilliger attended to the wounds.

Funeral Notes. The funeral of Mrs. Della Wilcox, was held at the residence on Third street this morning at 10 o'clock, Rev. Wm. Brundige, of the Wayne street Church of Christ, officiating. Interment was made in Woodlawn.

At the south side Church of Christ, tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock, will occur the funeral of Wm. H. Baker, who died at Washington, D. C. Mart Armstrong Post, G. A. R. will have charge of the obsequies.

The funeral of Samuel Stewart, of Laney avenue, will take place at the First Baptist church at 2 o'clock tomorrow afternoon, and interment will be made in Woodlawn cemetery. The Home Guards will attend in a body, and have charge.

The last sad rites over the remains of Mrs. Frank Bolton were held at the Henry Bolton residence on east Elm street this morning at 10 o'clock, Rev. C. C. Kennedy officiating.

Local Briefs. Custer has not moved yet. Now rain gutters are being put on the south Elizabeth street school building.

Albert Clevenger, of south Main street, is nursing a very sore left thumb, which he lacerated with a hack saw.

Mrs. Sadie Strohl, of St. Johns avenue, is recovering from a four weeks' illness.

Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Nichols, of Second street, are rejoicing over a new boy baby.

Mrs. Jeanette Lockwood, of south Union street, has returned from a Westerner relatives, yesterday, entertained Mrs. H. E. Kern, of 766 south Main street.

Charles Stagerwald has purchased the J. S. Starling home, on south Central avenue.

Byron Van Horn, of McPherson avenue, was a Sunday visitor yesterday.

Carl Henze, a boilermaker at the Solar is very sick with typhoid fever, at his home on south Union street.

Mrs. H. A. Gramburg, of Cincinnati, is a guest of the Lockwood family, on south Union street.

Another victim of rheumatism is S. S. Shaffer, of south Elizabeth street.

Machulist J. L. Wright, of the Lake Erie shops and family, left this morning for Knoxville, Tenn., for a visit.

Don't forget the lecture at Solar Lodge hall this evening.

Rev. Vir Den will hold evangelistic services at Grace church tomorrow evening.

Charles Burden has resigned his position at the Haddox barber shop, and left for the wild and woolly west yesterday.

Wm. Gore, of south Elizabeth street, left last night for Cincinnati, where he joins the Robinson circus.

J. M. Rice has moved his family to Welch, W. Va., where he has secured a position on the Norfolk & Western.

Mrs. M. Goodwin, of McPherson avenue, is seriously ill with heart trouble.

The L. H. Nichols family, of Second street, are entertaining Mrs. Daniel Shure, of Celina.

Mrs. W. C. Fess, of south Main street, has as a guest, Mrs. Clara Ebling, of North Washington, Ohio.

The newest wrinkle in bedroom furnishings for spring and summer is the use of the crown tapestry canopy for the dresser and bedstead.

The chief thing to recommend the tapestry canopy is its economy. Any old bedroom suit can be used as a foundation, or even a pine frame-work, painted white, for the dressing table and washstand. The latter is draped with figured tapestry along the simplest lines to give the valance effect. The dressing table has a crown foundation overhead, from which the tapestry falls in graceful folds and extend to the floor.

The background for the mirror is also of the tapestry, and in this frame-work is set an oval beveled glass at a height convenient for a woman to sit when making her toilet. The entire dressing table is enveloped in the tapestry, over which a white, point d'esprit froled dresser scarf is spread. A bedstead painted white, or a brass one, is draped 'crown' fashion to correspond with the dressing table, and also has valances of the tapestry. White ruffled point d'esprit pillow shams and spread give the little daintily touch and tone down the brilliancy of the floral coloring.

A slipper ottoman, upholstered and lined with plain satin which has pockets around the sides for the foot-wear, goes with this set.

A chair which is the epitome of comfort, is an addition to the set. It is called the "Thirty Winks." "Forty Winks," or "Fifty Winks," according to its size. It nearly envelops the occupant, as it has not only a high back, but high side pieces which extend out to the padded arms.

A box couch upholstered in the tapestry, with cushions is offered as an alternative to the chair.

Humane Reggie. Reggie pulled out pussy's tail, Though to do so made him pale; "Now," said he, "bad boys can't get A hold upon my poor, dear pet."

PENALTIES FOR MARRYING

In Addition to Those Sometimes Alleged to Be Paid at Home.

Matrimony is considered a punishable offense in some communities. These circles of society are small, but their edicts are strong. The larger community, if it takes cognizance of a man's single state, usually imposes a fine for not getting married, as in Argentina, where bachelorhood requires the payment of an increasing tax to the government.

But in certain circles marriage is regarded as an offense. At Oxford university, for instance, a fellow of All Souls' college forfeits his fellowship if he takes to himself a wife while he is supposed to be studying the classics.

He not only must pay a penalty, but he must present his college a memorial in the shape of a silver cup on which are inscribed the words, "Descendit in matrimonium" ("He backslid into matrimony").

The aristocratic Bachelors' club of Piccadilly, London, ostracizes members who forget themselves so far as to marry. Instant expulsion is the punishment for this offense. The backsliders must leave the company of the bachelors forever. As an act of grace they must pay a fine of $100 and become honorary members of the club, but that is their only salvation.

Not only England has these antimatrimonial clubs. Their formation in Chicago has been treated as a joke, as it has in other American cities. Bachelors in other countries have lent an air of seriousness to their endeavors.

It is serious for a member of a certain Junggesellen club in Germany to lapse into matrimony. As soon as his intention becomes known he is tried in the club court, with the president as judge, when he is allowed to plead in extenuation of his offense. On the skill of his pleading and his excuses depends his fine, from $100 to $250.

This fine is devoted to a dinner, at which all members appear in mourning garb. At its conclusion the president reads the sentence of expulsion, and the delinquent is led from the premises to an accompaniment of groans and lamentations.

Only last winter a recreant was condemned to swim twice across the Seine at midnight, with the result that a severe attack of rheumatic fever nearly robbed him of the bride he had paid the heavy price to wed.

While the bachelor sometimes has to pay dearly for a wife, in at least one country it scarcely pays to remain celibate. In Argentina the man who prefers single to duplicated bliss has to pay a substantial and progressive tax. If he has not taken a wife by the time he has reached his twenty-fifth birthday he must pay a fine of $5 a month to the exchequer.—Chicago Record-Herald.

WEATHER.

Washington, April 20.—For Ohio: Fair tonight; warmer in west portion; Thursday, rain and warmer, fresh north winds becoming southeasterly.Many things extravagant can be charged to the present legislature but the crime of its financial crimes came yesterday when a bill was introduced advancing the price of a marriage license to one dollar and fifty cents, and without curtailment of the person's right to marry. This measure is worthy of the condemnation of all because it will prove a barrier to the wedding industry, and at the same time operate hand in hand with that which the president preaches against—rate suicide. It should be defeated.Scrofula, salt rheum, erysipelas and other distressing eruptive diseases yield quickly and permanently to the cleansing, purifying power of Burdock Blood Purifiers.The little folks love Dr. Woods' Norway Pine Syrup. Pleasant to take, perfectly harmless; positive cure for coughs, colds, bronchitis, and asthma.

Scrofula

It is commonly inherited.

Few are entirely free from it.
Pale, weak, puny children are afflicted with it in many cases out of ten, and many adults suffer from it.Common indications are: eruptions in the neck, abscesses, catarrhs, eruptions, inflamed eyelids, sore ears, scurvy, catarrh, wasting, and general debility.Hood's Sarsaparilla and PillsEradicate it, positively and absolutely.
This statement is based on the thousands of permanent cures these medicines have wrought."My daughter had scrofula, with eleven sores on her neck and about her ears. Hood's Sarsaparilla was highly recommended and she took it and was cured. She is now in good health." Mrs. J. H. Joram, Parker City, Ind.Hood's Sarsaparilla promises to cure and keeps the promise.When Will Coal Give Out?
It appears that there is coal in the United Kingdom to a depth of 4,000 feet, sufficient at about the present rate of output to suffice for 571 years, but that this period will be considerably extended, seeing that there is a very probability that mining can be extended to a depth of 7,000 feet, though at this depth there will not be anything like the area of coal that there is at the former limit. And it further seems probable to expect that this period of supply may be still further extended by the more economical use of fuel, due to the establishment of central electrical supply stations and the utilization of liquid and other gas producing processes and of gas driven engines as well as other means of obtaining a higher percentage of the heat value of the fuel.—Engineering Magazine.Sugar as a Food.
The impression that sugar is bad for the health, and particularly for the teeth, is combated by modern physicians, except of course in the case of those actually diseased with diabetes or kindred troubles.Sugar is nutritious, antiseptic and fattening. It is a quickly absorbed food. A colorless solution of sugar and water has often been used by "fastners."As for sugar spoiling the teeth, the "finest grinders" in the world are those of negroes in Egypt and in our own southern states, who chew sugar cane.
The ancients had little knowledge of sugar, but their possession of the "sweet tooth" is proved by frequent references of classic authors to honey.Where the Camel is Found.
The camel is found in Arabia, Persia, Asia Minor, Afghanistan, Baluchistan, Mongolia, western China and northern India, as well as in Syria, Turkey, north Africa and parts of Spain. The camel is known by the sanskrit word "dromedary" and all these lands; not a page scarcely of an Arabic lexicon has reference to the camel.
The language itself, according to Hammer Purgstall, knows him by 3,744 names. The only reason why Scripture is comparatively silent is because the topography of the Holy Land is such that in most parts the use of the camel is an impossibility.If you achieve success, you must is Licked Up—Only One Man Reported Lost.Toronto, April 20.—Ten million dollars worth of property was destroyed by the fire which devastated the business section of Toronto, last night and early today. The flames were entirely under control at 5 o'clock. Two hundred and fifty firms were burned out. The area covered by the fire was three blocks in length and varied in width from half a block to two blocks.Only one man is missing and it is not certain that he perished in the flames.Chief Thompson, of the fire department, was the only person injured. His condition is not serious.The customs house, a four story stone building, was destroyed at four o'clock.Revised estimate of the loss place it at $10,000,000 with $7,000,000 insurance.Detailed Account.

Toronto, April 20.—The fire that raged throughout the night and up to an early hour today in Toronto's wholesale and retail business district was the most disastrous in the history of the city. The total loss is estimated at ten million dollars.The principal warehouses of the city were reduced to ashes and nearly 250 firms were put out of business.
The area covered by the fire is three blocks in length and varies from half a block to two blocks in width. Every building on Bay street from Melinda street southward to the Esplanade at the water front was wiped out and the fire spread on Wellington and Front streets and the Esplanade, along the water front, from their intersection with Bay street for a distance of a few hundred feet to a whole block.The total number of buildings destroyed were: Bay street, east side, 30; west side 3; Wellington street, north side, 12; south side, 7; Front street, north 22, south 27, Esplanade, 4; Piper street, 1.Early in the evening when the fire assumed alarming proportions, appeals for assistance were sent to Hamilton, Montreal and Buffalo. Special trains at once started from these points, but it was long after midnight before the first of them began to arrive and in meantime the Toronto firemen were having the fight of their lives.From the time the fire started on the north side of Wellington street, a short distance east of Bay street, in the E. and S. Currie neckwear manufacturing plant until it burned itself out at day break, there was not a moment when a shift of the wind to the north would not have resulted in the destruction of the greater part of the city.The fire started in the elevator shaft in the rear of the Currie building. Thence the flames spread across the street to Brown Brothers and from there east to Bay street. The wind which had been brisk, increased to a gale. A general alarm was sounded, but before all the force had reached the scene the fire had leaped to the high buildings occupied by Ansley & Co. and Pugsley, Dingman and Co.
Then Suckling's, Currie, Browns and Dingman and Money's were all a mass of flames and the streams of water thrown into them had no apparent effect.It was here firemen united forces and made a desperate stand to check the progress of the flames northward into the heart of the city. They won, but not until they had lost control of the flames which were now sweeping down Bay street towards the river front. The office of the Evening Telegram, the next building north of the Office Specialty building was slightly damaged in the two hour's fight with the raging flames. In the meantime the immense warehouses of the W. R.
Brook Co. on the southwest corner of Bay and Wellington streets were being subjected to the intense heat from the burning Brown building on the east and the Dingman and Money-peony building, which with scarcely a stream of water plunging upon them.
The big wooden upper tank on the roof caught fire, but in some strange manner the building itself escaped destruction for the time being. The fire cut its way through the rear of the Brown Bros. building which faces on Front street, the first street south of Wellington.In a brief space of time, Front street on both sides was like a roaring furnace. For over half an hour, the fire in Front street burned fiercely and unchecked. It then began to work its way back up Bay street, Gordon Mackay & Co.'s warehouse serving as fuel.
A few minutes before midnight, the Canada Rubber Co.'s plant started to burn. While it lasted, this furnished the hottest and fiercest conflagration of the night, the flames shooting hundreds of feet into the air and scattering great masses of sparks and embers on every side, continued north on Bay street until a complete circle of fire formed around the Brock building on the southwest corner of Bay and Wellington streets, over which the flames had huddled in their first dash south. The Brock building was soon in ashes.It was only the intervening park that saved the Queen's hotel, one of the finest hostleries in the city. So imminent was the danger that all the guests hurriedly packed their belongings and left, and everything portable was removed from the hotel.The flames leaped across Bay street in half a dozen places and shortly before midnight it became apparent that the whole block south of east Wellington street from the Queen's hotel and the old Manning residence facing Wellington street, was doomed.
The Gordon Mackay building on the northeast corner of Front and Bay streets, which for nearly seventy years, was one of the finest establishments in the city made a fierce blaze.
The Copp Clark building was destroyed at about the same time. The scene when this whole block of great wholesale buildings was ablaze was appalling. The heat was so great and the smoke and flying embers so thick that the firemen were absolutely helpless, and could not get near enough to the fire to play a single stream upon it. To add to the terrible effects of the scene came a bam-bardment of exploding giant crackers and other fireworks stored in the Copp Clark building.The fire next leaped across Front street to the McPherson Brothers boot and shoe warehouse, and adjoining buildings. Eastward on Front and south to the Esplanade, the flames leaped from building to building with irresistible fury.In forty-five minutes the flames had levelled every building between Front street and the Esplanade, on the west side of Bay street.The firemen who had been forced to retreat slowly along Front street and the Esplanade concentrated their forces and adopted another desperate stand. They failed this time. The flames leaped across the street below Front street, and destroyed Mc-Laughlin Co.'s flour mills at the southeast corner of Bay street. From there the fire took an easterly course toward Yonge street, and dangerously near the wharves.On the southwest it burned its way out for lack of fuel. The flames were also spreading toward the east along both sides of Front street and the southside of Wellington street.At 2 o'clock, the Eddy warehouse, the Lincoln Paper Mills warehouse and the Kleimert Rubber Co.'s warehouse were burning on the north side of Front street.The south side the warehouses of H. S. Howland & Sons and Co., the Duggs Paint Co. and the Dodge Split Pulley Co., were burning, the intensity of the fire being increased by the highly inflammable nature of the contents of the buildings.So impotent were the efforts of the firemen to check the ravages of the flames that all hope of checking the fire before it reached Yonge street one block east of Bay street, was abandoned. On west Wellington street, opposite the Brock building, Wild and Barling's warehouse, Buntin Reid Co.'s store, the warehouses of W. and L. Samuel, Benjamin Co., A. Bradshaw and Sons, Kilgour Bros. and the Union building were destroyed before the fire was fought to a standstill.The custom house, a four story stone building at the corner of Yonge and Front streets was the barrier that stopped the progress of the flames toward the eastern end of Front street. Tons of water were thrown against the sides of the custom house that structure has not seriously damaged. Dynamite was used on several small buildings.Streams of water are being poured into immense depth of glowing embers but the fire has spent its force and all danger has passed.Firms Burned Out.

Are Not Unlikely to Develop Into Producers of Great Importance.There are a number of states in the union which are thus far credited with no considerable output of petroleum but which are not unlikely to develop oil fields of notable productivity.

Colorado.

Among these is Colorado, although the production of that state for 1902 was disappointing, as it fell 63,619 barrels below its production of the previous year. Its 396,901 barrels were, however, valued at $484,683 and represented an increase of $23,652 in value. This oil all came from the two districts, about Florence and Boulder.
The quality of the petroleum from the Boulder pool is superior to that of any other oil field west of the Mississippi River. It is similar to Pennsylvania petroleum in the percentage of its refined product.

Wyoming.

Known petroleum fields are widely distributed over the State of Wyoming, from the southwest to the northeast corner. The production for 1902 was 6255 barrels of crude petroleum, valued at $43,771. The wells which produced this oil are at Salt Creek, in Natrona county. They are 10 in number and belong to the Pennsylvania Co. The most active work during the year was in Uinta and Sweetwater counties. At Spring Valley in Uinta county, there is a deposit of remarkably pure petroleum. Several spouting wells have recently been drilled in Fremont county. Prospective fields are known near Newcastle, in Weston county, and near Bonanza, in Bighorn county. They are far from any thickly populated district or from any manufacturing centers. No lines of transportation connect them with consumers. Unfortunately for the petroleum operators, Wyoming is also abundantly supplied with bituminous coal of good quality.

Missouri.

Oil was discovered at Belton, Cass county, Missouri, in 1902 and the product of 7 new wells was added to the small quantity that has for many years been produced from a well located in Bates county. The product is a high-grade lubricating oil, and is worth $3 a barrel at the well. Numerous indications of petroleum are found in the lower carboniferous limestone near Joplin and elsewhere.

Oklahoma.

Many natural petroleum seeps are found in Oklahoma Territory, but there was no production reported in 1902. Guthrie, Lawton, Fort Sill, Richards and Granite have all more or less natural vents, showing both petroleum and natural gas, and in a few years this territory will probably be placed on the list of regular producers.

New Mexico.

Occurrences of oil have been noted at numerous places in New Mexico, in the counties of Guadalupe, San Juan, Coffey, Union, Eddy, Lincoln, and Otero. A number of companies have been organized for the systematic development of these deposits and drilling for oil is in progress.

Utah.

Considerable prospecting was done during 1902 in Utah, in Emery county, on the Green river, where a limited quantity of high grade lubricating petroleum was developed by the San Rafael Oil Co. Petroleum was also developed in the Shubad field, 25 miles southwest from Green river station and near Bluff in San Juan county.

Whiskey and Beer Habit

PERMANENTLY CURED BY
"ORRINE;"

ABSOLUTELY SAFE, SURE AND HARMLESS.

Physician pronounces drunkenness a disease of the nervous system, creating a morbid craving for a stimulant. Continued indulgence in whiskey, beer or wine acts away the stomach lining and stupefies the digestive organs, thus destroying the digestion and ruining the health. No "will power" can heal the inflamed stomach membranes."ORRINE" permanently removes the craving for liquor by acting directly on the affected nerves, restoring the stomach and digestive organs to normal conditions, improving the appetite and restoring the health. Can be given secretly if desired.Cure Effectuated or Money Refunded.

Montana.

A number of petroleum springs are known to exist in two localities in Montana. One of these is in Big Horn and Sentinel counties, near the Canadian boundary. The other section is an southern-central Montana, in the counties of Sweetgrass and Carbon.
Three wells have been recently completed in Carbon county, all of which are reported to have developed a showing of heavy petroleum. Indications of petroleum have also been reported in Beaverhead county, in the extreme southwestern portion of the state. An extensive field of petroleum shale has also been discovered about 60 miles northeast of Helena, and from this shale an oil of the highest character has been distilled. There is reason to believe that these deposits are of great commercial value.Owing to the rapid development of the field about Independence, Kansas, the Prairie Oil & Gas Co., which is to that field what the Buckeye Pipe Line Company and the National Transit Company are to their respective districts, will shortly move its offices from Neodosha to Independence, where better facilities for handling the increased production will be established, and the condition will be much healthier for its army of employees.J. H. Dempsey, Nelson Seymour, and other Cleveland associates have purchased the interest of Lippert in the Royal Oil Company, and will at once begin more active development of the property. The company is incorporated at $100,000 and practically all the stock is held in Cleveland. Mr.
Lippert before selling, was the owner of one-third of the issue. The com-pany has some fine leases in various parts of this country among them the summers in the Beaverhead holding in all 1100 acres of tested territory with a settled production of about 50 barrels per day.The price paid Mr. Lippert is not exactly known but those who know the value of the property place it at approximately $20,000 for his third.John O'Brien, superintendent of the

an's Plan Is Of-

to the Board or Laying Out High School Grounds.
Is a Matter That Is Open to Discussion by All Who Are Interested.
Idea of an Educational Square Fifth High School, Ward Building and a Handsome Public Library.

There is an earnest desire on the part of members of the school board to get rid of the old ward building and the west high street grounds as far as possible, and they argue that it is possible to borrow the money under the law which authorizes the issue of a certain number of bonds annually for school building purposes.
The present building stands connected it is only a question of fear-it down in the very near future, as soon as it can be done without operating the board financially, the work of reconstructing a new ward building should begin.
This connection a proposition was made by a far seeing citizen who is at least worth considering. referred to the extent of the lands as being more than was necessary for the present building, and one in contemplation, and that it could be a beautiful plan to convert the entire square into a group of fine structures. The high school face on high street, running north in eight feet of the present ward building. The space left is more than the lot, and the plan suggested the gentleman referred to, is the don of a ward building on the lowest corner, and a public library to the northeast. Wide walks, lined with shade trees, and the vacant space out with flower beds, similar to beautiful high school grounds at dusk, would make the square of the attractions of the city. In manner the question of a site for library would be solved, and since ground is not needed for school uses, further than providing a e for the ward building, it could be divided without crowding. merely offer this as a suggestion, cluded the gentleman, "and I can-think of any serious objections to it."

SMOOT CASE IS ON TRIAL AGAIN.

Brigham Roberts Testifies That He Knows Polygamy Is Wrong, But That He Cannot Shirk Duty to His Wives.

Washington, April 20.—What may be termed the second round of the Reed Smoot contest, opened today. Before the senate committee on privileges and election it was announced that seven witnesses would be heard before the adjournment of congress, and it is certain that the committee will then adjourn to convene in Salt Lake City, Utah, on July 18. At that time will be examined witnesses who were unable to come to Washington, and others who could not be reached with summons to come here.
Important testimony for the prosecution is expected to be developed at this session of the committee. The hearing opened without formality of any character. Brigham H. Roberts was called to the stand by Mr. Taylor.
He was requested to bring out a statement of his official connection with the church. Mr. Roberts said he was elected to the position of the first seven presidents in 1888 and entered politics about 1889. His interest was manifested in making speeches, but he was not a candidate for office until 1894. He then was elected as a member of the constitutional convention, and that he had accordingly consented not to urge his candidacy. He was nominated during his absence and was informed that the order had been rescinded. He said that Joseph F.
Smith was the member of the first presidency who said the ruling had been modified. He explained fully certain criticisms which had been made of an alleged influence which the first presidency and apostles had brought to bear against the present aspirations of himself and Moses Thatcher because their attitude was not in harmony with the democratic convention which adopted a declaration of principles against the church influences.
Mr. Roberts said he protested. Mr.
Roberts said he was defeated the first time he ran for congress. He thought that last child was born three or four years ago.
In response to questions of Mr. Taylor, Mr. Roberts said his first plural marriage was performed by D. H.
Wells, counsel to the apostles, and he thought the ceremony was performed at the home of Mr. Wells's son.
Senator Overman inquired of Mr.
Roberts whether his first wife and his second wife had consented to his third wife.
"No, sir," said Mr. Roberts. Continuing he said: "They did not learn of the marriage for three or four years."
"How was that?" asked Senator Overman. "Do you mean to say that the marriage was not known to any one?"
"It was known to some of my friends, but not to my wives," was the answer.

Mr. Roberts said his third wife was the divorced wife of Dr. Shipp, and in regard to his courtship, he said he always had met her at the house of mutual friends, and had never called on her at her home. He also said that she continues to live in her home, but that he never called on her there until she removed to rooms in Main street, Salt Lake.

Chairman Burrows asked a number of pointed questions which brought out the confession from Mr. Roberts that he still believes in and is practicing polygamy. He said that he believes that the Woodruff manifesto was divinely inspired, and that now in practicing polygamy he knows he is disobeying both the laws of the land and the laws of God. He was asked why he continued to disobey the laws of God, if he believed them to be the highest laws and with a resigned air, he said: "Well, the manifesto left me in the midst of obligations to these wives. I am trying to do the best I can to live within the laws, but these obligations I cannot shirk." The committee adjourned until 2 p. m., with Mr. Roberts examination unfinished.

THE MARKETS.

New York, April 20.—Opening prices of stocks today were but little changed from last night and business was not large. Consolidated Gas rose 1½ and Metropolitan Street Railway nearly a point. U. S. Steel preferred ran off 5-8 on a succession of sales. Otherwise the changes were restricted to an eighth or a quarter either way.
The advance in Metropolitan Street Railway invited profit taking by the traders and the gain was cancelled.
Other stocks reached a slightly lower level, but there was some recovery later. The market was sluggish and unsteady at the end of the hour.
Lackawanna rose 2½ and then lost it. The iron and steel stocks were weak. Pressed Steel Car lost 3-8. and Tennessee Coal, the Car stocks and the Locomotive stocks, 1 to 2.
The tendency elsewhere was dropping in sympathy. Anaconda declined 2 1-4, Cleveland and Pittsburg, C. C. C. and St. L. 5, and Wabash a point. The closing was dull and weak.
Wheat Decline.
Chicago, April 20.—A decline in wheat prices today, the May delivery showing a loss of 2½ cents from the highest point of the day. The wheat market has been heavy for the past two or three days due largely to closing up of May deals. It is gen-

FIFTY VOICES
Will Assist the Lima Choral Society
In Their May Festival to Be Rendered May 6
The Boston Festival Orchestra of Fifty Voices and Six Eminent Soloists Engaged for the Occasion.

May 6th will be the climax of all great events in music's domain in Lima. The Choral Society has underaken the most momentous enterprise yet offered in the engagement of Mollenbauer's Festival Orchestra of fifty artists and six eminent soloists, stars of the first magnitude, in two magnificent concerts on the above date, the evening concert giving the great dramatic Oratorio "Elijah," with a grand chorus of one hundred select voices, the full festival orchestra and four of the greatest soloists that can be procured in this country.

This action of the society places Lima in the category of cities along with Louisville, Indianapolis, and Detroit where this great orchestra fills engagements this spring.

The following description of the orchestra and soloists may not be out of place:

Emil Mollenbauer, whose direction of the Handel and Haydn Society and conductors of the Apollo club, both of Boston, have added to his famowields the baton over the fifty selected musicians composing the orchestra.
Mr. Mollenbauer is the recognized leader in conductorship throughout musical New England. His unquestioned ability coupled with a well-balanced band of able instrumentalists, makes the Boston Festival Orchestra one of the best in the country, and the leader in its chosen field.

They have made musical festivals possible throughout the United States and were the first organization to successfully meet this need.

A record of their appearances during the past sixteen years shows participation in almost every important musical festival in America during that time.

At the present writing they play more choral concerts in one season than all other American orchestras combined.

Of the artists engaged for the present festival, much can be said in commendation. Clara Sexton has made a reputation in Boston, and throughout New England, that will carry her over the entire United States, for once having earned the approval of cold, critical Boston, an artist is safe in appearing anywhere else.

Florence Mulford, the contralto, is fresh from a satisfactory appearance with the Metropolitan Opera Co., in New York, and has justified the endorsements which had preceded her entrance into the field of grand opera.

Holmes Cowper, a tenor of unusual attainments, is known chiefly by his splendid concert and oratorio work.

Frederick Martin, Boston's famous basso, has earned a reputation that makes his appearances pleasurable expectation.

Mr. Gwilym Miles, the baritone, needs no introduction to a Lima audience, having spent his boyhood days here before he achieved his great success as a singer. His peer does not exist in American music circles as "Elijah," in the great Mendelssohn oratorio of that name. His last appearance in that great character in Columbus, last week, was one of the most magnificent ovations ever accorded a singer in this country.

The afternoon concert will be a symphony concert by the orchestra, with Frederick Martin, the great basso, as soloist, and will present the masterpieces of the great composers, interspersed with the most popular orchestral selections.

The evening program, as stated above, will consist of "Elijah" with Miss Sexton, Miss Mulford, Mr. Cowper and Mr. Miles in the title roles, with grand chorus and full orchestra, all under the leadership of Prof. H. W.
Owens.

LIFE

Of the Geisha Girl Depicted

By Instructor

At Imperial University in Tokio.

Taken From Poor Families and Turned Over to the Geisha Instructors

They Are Taught All Arts That Make Them Charming Socially—No Disgrace Attaches to Their Life or Calling.

George Rust Bedinger, who, after two years of service as instructor in the Imperial University at Tokio, has returned from Japan, full of enthusiasm for the Japanese, explained away the other day to a group of interested listeners in New York a popular Western misconception as to the geisha girls, says the New York Sun.

These girls are educated and trained public entertainers. Orphans and daughters of poor parents are turned over to the geisha instructors and kept eight or ten years in training. They learn all the arts that make them charming socially—how to enter a room gracefully, how to arrange flowers in decorative fashion, how to bow, to dance, how to dress with taste above all how to talk cleverly and agreeably. They are, in fact, the most delightful talkers one can imagine.

When a geisha girl's education is complete, she is ready to earn her living as a public entertainer. Many of them, indeed, entertain in a subordinate fashion as aids to the fully educated geisha before they have learned all the arts of the profession, so that many of the geisha girls appear as mere children.

It is necessary that Japan shall have a vast number of geisha girls, because, according to the etiquette of Japan the wives and daughters of Japanese households, do not attend social entertainments given by the husbands and fathers. The geisha girls, therefore, are the sole feminine element at such entertainments.

When a Japanese gives a dinner to his friends, native or foreign, at a public restaurant, a number of regularly hired geisha girls appear, clad in lovely garments, smiling, merry and ready with quick repartee whenever host or guest addresses them. Misapprehension as to the character of these girls leads to many offensive remarks by western persons of Japanese gentlemen. As a matter of fact, no Japanese gentleman would think of treating with anything but the utmost politeness a geisha girl with whom he came in contact while enjoying the hospitality of a friend.

Mr. Bedinger was not sure what became of the geisha girls. In the Japanese tongue, he declared, there is no word or phrase to convey our idea of the old maid, because it is taken for granted that a woman of mature years is married. Some of the geisha girls marry, some become geisha trainers, a profession of much importance, and some no doubt end their lives less creditably.

There is no disgrace attaching to the life of the geisha girl, and the best of them live comfortably and enjoy a high consideration at the hands of their employers. It is undeniable, however, that the geisha trainers, in effect, buy little girls of poor or vicious parents in order to recruit the ranks of the students.

It is difficult to make the Western mind understand why mothers, wives and daughters do not appear at the entertainments provided by the male members of the household, but such entertainments with geisha girls in attendance have in them nothing necessarily indecent.

The absence of wives and daughters implies nothing humiliating to them, and is not to be taken as an evidence that women are misused in Japan. Notwithstanding the frequency of divorce in Japan, and many evidences of what we should call the subjection of women, the Japanese wife has a powerful voice in family councils.

Wm. Owen Is Dead at Home of His Son in Englewood, Ill.

Robt. Peate, of the Carter & Carroll store, this morning, received a telegram announcing the death of Wm. Owen, at the home of his son Wm. Owen, Jr., in Englewood, Ill. On March 20th, Mr. Owen dictated a letter to Mr. Peate in which he stated that as a result of a fall about one year ago, he had just had to undergo an operation, which had done but little good to his condition, and that he was suffering constant and intense pain, and that while confined to his bed, his thoughts continually reverted to his old and dear friends in Lima.

For many years, Mr. Owen was a resident of Lima, being connected with the W. W. Williams dry goods store a major portion of the time. Of recent years, although at the time of his death, in his eightieth year, he has been one of the most successful traveling men on the road, his trips bringing him to this city every two months. His many social and business friends in Lima will be sorely grieved over his death, even though he had gone past the allotted time.
